A huge welcome back to everyone for the start of a new half term. We hope you had a relaxing break and had opportunities to enjoy yourselves. We have entered this half term at full speed, celebrating a fabulous World Book Day on Thursday with some excellent costumes on display. We really do love reading at William Stockton. As ever we have a busy half term to look forward to and of course lots of learning to experience.

WORLD BOOK DAY
 WOW! What a great day, was had by all. Everyone looked fantastic, even the teachers! The effort everyone put into the day really shows the love of reading that we have at William Stockton. Thanks to everyone and well done!

- Forthcoming Dates

Library Visits
 Keeping the theme on reading, we have two classes visiting the EP library next week.
 3/4M on Monday 6th March and 3M on Thursday 9th March

2H assembly
 Next Friday (10th March) is class 2H's assembly in the hall. Parents of 2H are invited to attend. Please come through the main entrance for a 9.15am start.

BOOK FAYRE
 Next week is the BOOK FAYRE at William Stockton. Children will get the opportunity to look at the books during the week and it will be open after school for purchases. We can't wait to see you there.

Maths Quiz Final
 Next Friday our wonderful Y6 maths quiz team are in the local final against other schools in Ellesmere Port. We wish them all the best for the competition, I am sure they will do themselves and the school proud!

CELEBRATION ASSEMBLY
 Congratulations to all the rosette winners this week.
